Bridge creeps ahead

Who said the West Gate Bridge isn't growing? ... these pictures show it is. The picture above shows the western side of the main span on Wednesday last week. The picture below was taken last Thursday. Note the extra span-section placed into position.

Parents want week day street stalls

Street stalls are becoming a major problem in Altona.

At its meeting on Monday night the council received a petition from 90 people complaining about the council's approach to the stalls.

The petition was sent in by Mrs. Dianne Nolan, secretary of the Roland Avenue kindergarten objecting to the council's decision that stalls be allowed only on Saturday morning, and not on weekdays.

It said that kindergartens and schools should have been allowed to give their opinions before the decision was made.

The petition gave four reasons why Saturday-morning stalls were inconvenient to parents and added that families should be able to spend their weekends together. In conclusion, the petition said, "As the council's decision affects most school and kindergarten fund-raising activities, we would like a detailed answer stating why this rule was passed."

The town clerk, Mr. Syd Fell, outlined council's past policy.

He said most stalls had been restricted to Saturday mornings, one or two had been allowed on Thursday or Friday afternoons.

Mr. Fell went on: "With alterations to the Commonwealth Bank in Pier Street, it had been necessary to find a new location for stalls.

"The post office had offered the use of its frontage, but had asked that, at least initially the stalls be restricted to Saturdays."

He said the postal inspector, Mr. C. Gentz, was prepared to allow Friday stalls now.

He added that shopping patterns were changing — Saturday was no longer the busiest time.

"People want the busiest time and place for their stalls," said Mr. Fell.

"With the tightening of Government funds, it is obvious that organisations will desire greater activity in street stalls for project funding purposes."

"We seem to have the Pier Street problem solved. Our problems will come from other areas where stalls are likely to cause congestion on footpaths."

The street stall question was referred back to the general purposes committee for a detailed investigation and report.

Cr. Richards quizzed the town clerk, Mr. Syd Fell about the local government representatives on the new working party appointed by the Government to investigate relocation of Newmarket saleyards.

Mr. Fell: "They have no direct interest in the west. They are simply public servants."

Cr. Richards: "This is not good enough. Have we any dialogue with Sunshine? They are more involved than we are."

Mr. Fell: "There has been plenty of dialogue. We have been to see the Minister. We have an agreement in black and white that when this working party starts we will be invited, and so will Sunshine, to make submissions."

Cr. Les Crofts: "I am quite disturbed that we have been overlooked, but we will just have to fight it the best way we know."

Mr. Fell gave the terms of reference of the Government's working party.

To prepare and recommend a proposal for the relocation of the Newmarket saleyards, and to inquire into and report on:

● The proposed time scale for the relocation.

● The economics of funding the scheme.

● The construction or criteria and requirements for ancillary services.

● Future use and development of the land occupied by the existing saleyards and abattoir.

● The legislative and administrative action required.

● Any other matter which appears relevant to the working party.

He commented: "The personnel of the committee will come from an existing standing committee on saleyards, which the Government appointed some years ago, with the object of rationalised approach to the establishment of saleyards in rural areas which were the subject of Government subsidy towards the cost."

"The local government representatives on the working committee will be Mr. W. J. Goodall, senior engineer, and Mr. B. C. Kelleher, assistant senior inspector of municipal administration," said Mr. Fell.

Council alert on shoreline

The State Development Committee will inspect the Williamstown shoreline as part of its inquiry into port utilisation and development.

Williamstown councillors and environment department staff will take committee members around the bay area to explain how future port development could adversely affect the city.

Williamstown Council has already given evidence at the inquiry that future development by the Harbor Trust could encroach on recreation areas along the shoreline.

Williamstown has moved in favor of a survey to investigate the possibility of a regional library service in the western suburbs.

The Library Council of Victoria will carry out the survey at no cost to any of the suburbs concerned.

No Subsidy
The Road Safety and Traffic Authority has re-Williamstown Council for fused to subsidise crossing supervisor after school hours.

The council had applied for a 50 per cent. subsidy to cover the cost of a supervisor for two half-hours each week at the Williamstown North Primary School.

The school has asked for someone to man the crossing in Melbourne Road after Kids Town held after school two nights a week.

Councillors have now referred the matter to their shopping and transport committee.

PATROLS
Williamstown and Newport police will maintain patrols around the Newport Football Ground following fires at the ground over the past few months.

The council had written to the police pointing out the need for regular patrols of the area. In their reply the police stated they are aware of the problem "and our obligations towards maintaining the visits to council and properties during closed hours."

OBJECTION
Mr. H. Bridge, of Newcastle Street, Newport, has objected to proposals for the night-time use of the Newport Neighborhood Centre at 41-43 Mason Street.

He is the owner of a property at 35 Mason Street. Mr. Bridge said he has no objection to the centre being used during the day. However, "night time activity could induce an undesirable element and disturb the peace and quiet of the residents, and also detract from the desirability of living in the area.

GREYHOUNDS
Mrs D. Marian, of Cecil Street, has written to council objecting to her neighbors extending the dividing fence between the properties. She told council that sewerage pipes to her property could be damaged if the fence is extended. She also complained of the number of greyhounds allegedly kept by her neighbors.

The matters will be investigated by the environment director and the chief health surveyor.

NOT HAPPY
Mrs P. Enright, of Miris Street, Newport, has expressed a general dissatisfaction with the present appearance of Newport, "particularly in the Mason Street-Melbourne Road area."

She has also asked for a free and modern library and the provision of tennis courts in Newport.

Mr. Enright said the youth of Newport had to travel to Williamstown, Altona or Spotswood to play tennis.

In its reply to the letter, the council will explain its plans for the development of a library at the Newport Mechanics Institute, and point out that tennis courts in the area were closed after interest in the game waned in Newport.

Top show for footy club

The Blue Echoes (pictured above), Chad Morgan (the Sheik of Scrubby Creek), Ernie Sigley and a top line-up of other artists will take part in a concert at Williamstown Town Hall next Sunday, August 29.

The show, to begin at 2 p.m., will raise money for the Newport Football Club rebuilding scheme.

The club is trying to raise a total $25,000 to build a new pavilion at its ground following after a fire destroyed the rooms earlier this year.

The line-up of entertainers will also include The Denver Band, comedian Mal Melkie, Kevin-James Chalmers and the Sinclair Brothers Band.

Tickets for the show can be bought at the door, or from Barlow's Real Estate Agency in Hall Street, Newport, or Hi-Mark Press at 8 Parker Street, Williamstown.

The afternoon has been sponsored by Westgate Christian Endeavor and a spokesman yesterday issued an invitation for all interested to attend.

The film to be shown is Church Behind the Iron Curtain and the screening will begin at 3 p.m.

- That no nuisance is caused by the keeping of such dogs.
- That permission is valid only to December 31 this year. After that date Mrs. Bearpark must apply for a new permit.

The popular Pirates

There is still room for a little swash-buckling around Altona — especially, if it's in Gilbert and Sullivan's "Pirates of Penzance".

This comic opera — one of the Gilbert and Sullivan greats — brought together Footscray Girls' High School and Altona North Tech this month.

The school's staff and students presented the show over four nights at the Tech. School and Altona North High School halls.

Leading roles were played by Arthur Coates (ANT) as the hero, Frederic; Leonie Oswald and Vicki Braun (FGH) as Mabel; Daryl Richards (ANT) as the pirate king; Joseph Vella (ANT) as the Major General; Bruce Whittaker (ANT) as the sergeant; and Lena Bozzo (FGH) as Ruth.

Duncan seeks more help for sport

Gordon Duncan wants Williamstown Council to do more for sports clubs in the district, especially in Newport.

That's why, he says, he is standing as a candidate for Victoria Ward in the election to be held next Saturday.

Gordon, 23, of Oakbank Street, Newport, is a manager at Myers in the city.

He is a former Newport Football Club secretary, and still plays in the senior team.

The football club is the group behind his nomination.

"As everyone knows, our ancient pavilion was burned down a few months ago... that was the first blow," Gordon said.

"The second blow is having to raise $25,000 to help rebuild the place."

"Now we discover that some councillors want to turn our ground into an athletics complex — we would be pushed somewhere else. So would Newport Centrals footballers, the cricketers and the little athletics kids.

"We believe Cr. Bernard supports this idea, which is why we are contesting her seat on the council."

Gordon says, however, that if elected, he would move for better recreation facilities throughout the Williamstown area.

"Sport is one way of fighting vandalism — kids usually run amok because they have nothing else to occupy their time. With good sports grounds and facilities we would have something to offer them," he said.

Apart from two years

• Mr. Gordon Duncan

spent in Hawthorn, Gordon has lived in Newport all his life.

"When dad died, my mother had to leave the railway house, and that was when I came back to buy the Oakbank Street place. Mum is not really well enough to be living on her own."

Town backs Altona against housing estate plan

Paisley wanted for a park

Williamstown Council will tell the Housing Commission to drop its plan to build an estate on the former Paisley briquette dump.

Councillors support Altona in its objections to the plan. They want the land set aside for public open space.

The old briquette depot is on the boundary between Altona and Williamstown, in Blenheim Street.

Both councils, and the Petroleum Refineries, have fought the commission's estate project since its inception several years ago.

The Town Planning Appeals Tribunal has also rejected the commission's appeal against the refusal of the Board of Works to issue a permit for the estate.

The councils and PRA successfully fought the commission at the appeals on environmental grounds.

The commission had not included a buffer zone between the housing proposed for the estate and the neighboring PRA complex.

Since the last appeal, in 1975, the commission has redrafted its plans, and the Board of Works, has been asked to issue a permit for housing, and a shopping centre on the land.

Williamstown will object to the issue of a permit on the following grounds.

• The whole of the land in which this proposal is situated should be rezoned to public open space to provide more adequately for the recreational needs of the adjacent residential areas in Altona and Williamstown.

• The establishment of a shopping complex on this site would be detrimental to the local shopping facilities in the neighboring areas.

Card game rake — off 20c in $2

A North Altona man who operates a cafe in Hopkins Street, Footscray, told police he received 20 cents in each $2 wagered for allowing cards to be played in his cafe, Footscray Court was told last week.

The statement was made in evidence by Licensing and Gaming Squad police, who raided the cafe on May 9.

Police said Rocco Gobozo, of Millers Road, admitted he was the proprietor of the cafe and dealer in a Manila card game.

Six men were playing the game, Mr. W. Guy, SM, was told and there was a total of $204 on the table.

For conducting a common gaming house, Gobozo was fined $150 in default, 15 days imprisonment.

The five other men, involved in the game were each fined $30 in default three days imprisonment.

None of the men appeared in court to answer the charges.

SALVOS RAISE $4091

The Salvation Army Red Shield Appeal raised a record $4091 in Williamstown last month.

The total exceeded the previous year's total by $1281.

Ninety-one school children, individuals and Salvation Army staff door-knocked the area on Red Shield Sunday.

Team captains were: Geoff Reeves, Harry Mason, Jim Goodman, Gavan Black, Phil Bourke, Jim Pinkey, Jack Henry, Brian Patterson, Cliff Barling, Bruce Bennett, Dave Dillon, John Ardossi, Graeme Dupoy and Ken Shortland.

District chairmen were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Price and Mr. John Patterson, with Mr. Norm Bernard city chairman of the appeal.

Wanted: a home for Willy co-op centre

The Williamstown Community

a home.

The co-op, formed to provide daylong child care, occasional and emergency child care and after-school and holiday activities for children, has the money in Williamstown, for a house but can't find one.

Ms. Vivien Routley, Williamstown Council's children's services officer, said last week the co-op is still very active, "but enthusiasm is beginning to wane because of our inability to find a suitable house."

Most houses for sale in Williamstown are either too costly, or too small for the project.

Cricket practice starts

The North Altona Cricket Club will start practice this Sunday morning, August 29, at 9.30, at 9.30.

The clubs recent annual meeting was told that the players are looking forward to a move to a new complex in the North area during the coming season.

During the meeting the following officers were elected: president, M. McDonald; secretary, S. Harris; treasurer, S. Harris; coach, Bert Parke.

Boat dealer changes gear

A solidly established Williamstown boat dealership has recently changed its brand of outboard.

It is Ridgewell Marine of 220 Kororoit Creek Road, North Williamstown, owned and run by Mal and Wendy Ridgewell.

The switch is from Mercury to Johnson motors.

The partners were impressed by the big range of motors offered by Johnson, particularly in the volume-selling smaller horsepower, their reputation for a longer life in saltwater, and back-up service provided by the makers, Outboard Marine Corporation.

The partners also manufacture a range of fibre-glass boats, ranging from a 13 ft. runabout to a 17ft. half cabin, which sell under the brand name, Miranda.

There is a 13 ft. racing boat in the range, and Mal Ridgewell plans an assault on the Australian speed records in this boat with Johnson 55 and 75 hp outboards.

Before meeting Mooroolbark, Altona North beat Preston 5-0, Richmond 4-0 and Footscray 6-0. Members of the team pictured below are standing

GULLS COULD CLAW JADED FRANKSTON

A fitter, stronger Williamstown will tackle Frankston on Sunday for the right to play in this year's second division grand final.

Frankston looked jaded when they went down to Mordialloc on Sunday in a game that lacked the usual class of a semi-final.

The Seagulls lost to Frankston last time they met, but on Sunday they will have several of their better players back in the team.

Boyd, Fanning, Brown, Kennedy and Chalmers all missed the last clash.

The Gulls beat Northcote in the first semi-final, and will be in good shape for Sunday's clash after the week's rest.

Altona City down Centrals

Altona City, with a great final quarter against the wind, beat Central Altona by three goals on Sunday.

As in the earlier game on Langshaws Reserve, it was the Vikings' ability to score against the wind that won for them.

City had first use of the wind and scored 6 goals 5 to Centrals' 1 goal 4.

The goals were kicked by the rovers and pocket players as centre half-forward, Pixie Walters, was being well held by Centrals' Larry Thwaites, and full-forward Andrew Donnelly was receiving plenty of attention from the backline.

The second quarter was Centrals' best, they slammed home 9.6 to 3.1 and were 10 points up at half-time.

After being thrashed at Grant Reserve in the previous round, no one expected them to give the Vikings any real opposition, it was a great comeback and has put interest back into the finals.

The third term saw the Vikings kick inaccurately for 6.7, and Centrals scoring 2 goals. The lead of 21 points at three-quarter time didn't look good enough for City to win and the Centrals camp was confident.

The Vikings, with the Morgan twins and Wayne Jones starring, went straight into attack. A goal to Jones and two from 20th man, David Hobbs, sealed the game as Centrals struggled to score 3.5 for the quarter.

It was a great game and displayed all the skills. Players from both sides deserve praise for a fine exhibition of football.

Hobbs, G. Bebed, 2, G. Morgan, G. Roe, A. Walters.

RESERVES

The Reserves game was a hard fought and close affair until half-time, the Vikings led by only nine points, and a close finish appeared likely.

In the second half, City showed their superiority over Centrals and went on to win easily. Mick Howard and Tommy Hogan were dominating their positions and Joe O'Connor was the best of the small men.

Edi Puhar and Frank Grego in the key defence positions were clear winners and Wayne Gardner dominated his back flank.

Captain, Morrie Tisdale resting in the forward line and later at centre half-forward, marked well and kicked two good goals.

Altona City 20.8 (128) d. Central Altona 12.10 (82).

Altona City: Best, M. Howard, T. Hogan, F. Grego, A. Wilson, E. Puhar, M. Tisdale, J. O'Connor, W. Gardner. Goals: J. Male 5, S. Grainger, D. Hudson 4, O'Connor 3, Tisdale 2, Wilson, S. Shiels.

In two weeks the seniors and reserves from City and Centrals will meet again in the second semi-finals at Chirnside Park, Werribee.

The teams have met four times this season, Centrals won the double at Grant Reserve in the first round but the Vikings have won the other games.

UNDER-15s

The Vikings easily won a rough game against Braybrook, Kip, R. Skinner 3, A. Why-brow.

Altona City: 17.8 (110) d. Braybrook 1.1 (7).

Best: P. Richards, G. Knight, S. Kimpton, D. Wise, W. Smith. Goals: Kimpton, 7, A. Rocco, P. Richards, 3, D. Wise 2, D. Schmidt, McCullagh 1.

UNDER-13

Coach Harry Brown has his team playing well and they were far too good for Braybrook CYC.

Altona City 6.14 (50) d. Braybrook CYC 1.1 (7).

Best: G. Campbell, C. Brown, A. Shaw, G. Ferry, P. Dubowick.

Goals: Shaw, Dubowick, C. Money, K. Wurster, S. Radio-vitch, D. Goucher.

UNDER-12

The clubs only losers for the weekend, but still in the finals.

Altona City 1.4 (10) lost to ANBY 10.12 (72).

Best: J. Juppertz, C. Skerry, D. Krol, S. McGraw, S. Robinson, Goal: McGraw.

UNDER-11

The Vikings missed the finals but finished with a good win over Westport.

Altona City 5.7 (37) d. Westport 1.7 (13).

Best: D. Cooper, D. White, D. Gillespie, A. Hudson, P. Cutajar. Goals: Cooper, 2, Whioe, Cutajar, M. Doby 1 each.

UNDER 10

McGarries Midgents finished the season with a blaze of glory and were unlucky to miss the finals.

Altona City 7.5 (47) d. Laver-ton 0.1 (1).

Best: team effort. Goals: D. Best, R. Skinner 3, A. Why-brow.

THIRD STATE PENNANT TO WILLY HIGH

Williamstown High School won its third Victorian Table Tennis Association pennant when the C2 Grade side scored a convincing 6-4 victory over Don Bosco Hostel.

Williamstown High won the other VTTA pennants in E10 Grade last summer and the 1975 Victorian open age schoolboys' B Grade title.

The C2 Grade victory this season was a team effort with all three players contributing rubbers.

Two ex-students won the VTTA aggregates this season. Daniel Hee, now playing for Melbourne University was unbeaten in A5 Grade and David Brand won the A4 aggregate. Finals continued in the Western Suburbs Table Tennis Association competition. Highlights were: In A Grade, Williamstown Colts reversed their second semi-final loss to annihilate the Altona team. Albert Young and Steve Slattery did not lose a rubber.

In A Reserve, Williamstown High School fought back after being down 3-5 to win 6-5. Luciano Azzopardi beat Peter Byrne 21-14, 21-6 in the deciding rubber. Losers, Williamstown Colts were stunned and must now meet a confident team, Explosives, in the preliminary final.

Geoff Van Wyngaarden beat two of the top C Grade players to help his team, Williamstown High School Seagulls to move in to the C1 Grade grand final. Geoff also partnered C Grade champion, Jason Warland, to win the vital second doubles rubber.

In the D Grade second semi-final, WHS Malakunas just scraped home against Celts, winning 6-5. The side was without its champion, Geoff Van Wyngaarden, who was promoted to C Grade. Peter Nedeljkovic and Trevor McQuade won the last two rubbers.

Three more teams from Williamstown High qualified for grand finals, making a total of six. But this has not broken the record of last season when seven sides played off in grand finals.

United rallies

In an exciting final quarter, Williamstown United Seniors battled with Werribee, but to no avail — they lost by nine points.

The result was not disappointing because United was down five goals at half-time.

Final score: Werribee 18-17-125 d. Williamstown United 16-20-226.

Best of United: L. Meyers, B. Smith, P. Williams, J. Sandell, R. Taylor. Goals: L. Meyers 5, B. Smith 4, S. Jones 3, P. Williams, J. Sandell, R. Taylor, R. Nicholls.

The Reserves played their best game for the season and got within 20 points of top side Werribee.
